

These two lines are the split line or forked line that attaches to two bullet blocks shown and the other end to a bullet block that goes to the relativity control.

This line (all one line) is the 3 part purchase that comes from the boom and attaches to the final jib sheet on the back of the becket block shown

